

Statement regarding the duty to inform

Data protection policy valid for Albert Knoblinger Gesellschaft m. b. H. & Co. KG

Protection of your personal data is an important concern of ours. We therefore process your data solely on the basis of the statutory requirements (GDPR, 2003 Telecommunications Act). The purpose of this data protection policy is to inform you of the most important aspects of data processing. Your consent is required so we can use your data. This data protection statement may be updated at any time.

Scope

This privacy policy is valid exclusively for Albert Knoblinger Ges. m. b. H. & Co. KG. Our website may include links to third-party companies; they are not covered by this privacy policy and we do not assume any responsibility for their content.

Personal data, use, storage

We collect, process and store your personal data (first name, last name title, salutation, e-mail address, phone number, address) to the extent necessary for performance under the contract, implementation of pre-contractual measures or to meet legal obligations.

Transfer of data to service providers commissioned by us (carrier, logistic service providers, banks, sub-contractors) is a prerequisite for contractual performance. Due to regulations under tax law, we may also have to transfer data to tax consultants, auditors, the treasury department or other agencies. We store your data as long as necessary for the particular purpose and/or in accordance with applicable statutory regulations.

We do not use cookies, plugins or website analytics tools on our website www.knoblinger.at.

Rights

At any time and without the need to provide reasons, you have the right to information, correction, deletion, restriction, revocation and objection. Data subjects may assert their rights at any time at office@knoblinger.at.

Finally, data subjects are within their rights to lodge a complaint with the data protection agency. Subsequently, if you no longer agree to these rules, please notify us using your preferred method of communication so that we may block or delete your data.
